Dear Ruth:

On behalf of King County Executive Dow Constantine and the King County Landmarks Commission, I would like to acknowledge Fall City Historical Society for its tremendous efforts to educate the public about Fall City's heritage and the historic resources that tell the story of your community's past through both traditional and innovative programming. It is a pleasure to notify you that Fall City Historical Society was selected to receive a 2017 King County Executive's John D. Spellman Award for Exemplary Achievement in Historic Preservation. Fall City Historical Society will be recognized in the Education category.

The award will be presented by Executive Constantine at the Kirkland Woman's Club, located at 407 1st Street in Downtown Kirkland on Wednesday, October 18, 2017. A coffee reception for award recipients and guests will begin at 10 a.m., followed by the awards presentation at 10:30 a.m. The program will conclude at noon. You will have a few minutes to make remarks upon accepting the award after which we will take a photograph of you and your award with Executive Constantine. Please let us know if there will be anyone accepting the award with you, or on your behalf. You are more than welcome to have multiple representatives at the podium to accept it but please select one representative from your group to make brief comments. The event is open to the public so please feel free to invite members of your project teams, board, and community who will enjoy celebrating this achievement! We'll forward an electronic invitation to you shortly that you can pass along to others.

Again, congratulations from all of us. If you have questions about the award program please contact me at jennifer.meisner@kingcounty.gov or by phone at 206-477-0384. I look forward to seeing you in a few weeks!

Sincerely,

Jennifer Meisner
Historic Preservation Officer
