Volunteering is a gift gratefully received

It's thanks to a great group of volunteers that we are able to accomplish our work. From helping set up and takedown big projects like our "pavilion" for Fall City Day to building the Hop Shed model, making frames for historic signs, working on mailings and other office tasks, updating the Fall City Newsletter index, doing research...and much more. Page 8 shows those we were able to corral for a photo... we thank all of them, and all we were not able to include. Your time is really appreciated.

Special thanks to those who take on an ongoing task. Our treasurer Teresa Appleseth (above, left) does a great job of organizing all things financial and keeping us in line with all the nonprofit requirements. Membership coordinator Bev Bethards (below, left) stays on top of membership changes and sends out thank-yous and renewal notices. "Excel guy" Scott Massey (above, right) has created a composite Excel database for us, which includes lists for membership, monthly emails and the annual fundraising mailing, and helps to keep it up to date. David Gershman (below, right) frequently offers his considerable skills in graphic design to fine-tune sign photographs and text and each year gives our yearly calendar a professional finish.

And, of course, the (never bored) Board. Each brings special interests, talents, ideas and energy. It's a hard-working and playful group...meetings are guaranteed to be fun! Below, L-R: Leanne Adcox, Donna Driver-Kummen, Anne Neilson, Cindy Parks, Ruth Pickering, Paula Spence.

Support for our work from King County Heritage 4Culture is gratefully acknowledged.
