IN THE GOOD OL’ SUMMERTIME . . .

Raging River swimming hole, 1958. Inset: Beulah Leach (far left) with swimming buddies, c. 1918.

The Raging River Auto Camp Swimming Tank (seen at right)—65 feet long by 35 feet wide, from 3 to 9 feet in depth—was quite a treat in the early 1930s. It was located on Preston-Fall City Road, at the present site of A&H Septic.

Earning some spending money was also part of summer. The Koba Farms photo at far left is from 1962; the Cascara bark ad above is from 1960.
CALLING FOR FALL CITY QUILTS

The speaker for our Annual Meeting in October will talk about historic quilts. So we would like to put together a small display of Fall City quilts, both old and new. If you have ideas, quilts you would share, or would be willing to help assemble the display, please get in touch soon!

(Left) Irene Pike, with quilt made by her mother; (right) Class of 1933 names in small quilt.

Support for our work from King County Heritage 4Culture is gratefully acknowledged.