Cemetery Wine Walk

There are all sorts of bad jokes that come to mind about cemeteries, but the 70 folks who turned out for our Cemetery Tour and Wine Tasting had a great time exploring Fall City's past with a minimum of groaning humor. Donna Driver-Kummen led the tour of Fall City notables and Richard Heisler gave a run down on Civil War Vets. Special thanks to the William Grassie Wine Estates which provided the evening's libation. We hope to make it an annual event!

Upcoming Happenings—Save the Dates

On Sunday, September 18 we're presenting a repeat of our popular Sawmill Tour. Duane Isackson has agreed to show us how a sawmill operates. His is one of the last in the area.

We're excited to be mounting a Pop-up Museum at the library from September 20 - October 1st. Come and see what we dig out of the archives.

Details for both of these events will be in the September Neighbors Newsletter. We look forward to seeing you there!

Support for our work from King County Heritage 4Culture is gratefully acknowledged.
