Christmas belongs to kids. In the true spirit of Christmas, Santa arrived on Christmas Eve at homes around Fall City. He had a candy cane for everyone and handed out presents (if parents had left them on the porch). Sometimes Mrs. Santa or his elves accompanied him. This went on from about 1973-2009. Some say it was Ray Furstnow dressed as the jolly old elf, but others are sure it was Santa himself!

Where do you think the calendar cover photo was taken and what was happening? Send your guess to historylives@fallcityhistorical.org. You'll be entered in a random drawing to win a set of two of our wildly popular stemless wine glasses. If you correctly guess the name of the dog, you'll be entered twice! The drawing will take place on December 31st. For a closer look, you can buy the calendar at the Holiday Market, Farmhouse Market, or the Lucky Duck Thrift Store.

Thanks for Sharing

We were talking the other day about how fortunate we are to have a community that looks forward and backward. Since the Historical Society's founding, people have been generous in sharing stories, pictures and artifacts of Fall City's past. Our page 8 this month features pictures from Preserving the Stories of Fall City, the book of memories we published in 2010. Be sure to read the section entitled "Remembering: Santa" for the rest of that sweet story. If you need a copy of the book, it will be for sale at the Holiday Market, the Lucky Duck Thrift Store and online at fallcityhistorical.org.

Support for our work from King County Heritage 4Culture is gratefully acknowledged.
