We're delighted to share that our website is now mobile-optimized! When you have some free time...check it out! And let us know if you see any issues. Our heartfelt thanks to Sue Holbink of edsbits who donated her time to bring us up to date in this important way.

Fall City Day, June 8th

Stop by our history pavilion on the 8th, and see how World War I reached into the Snoqualmie Valley.

Perry Burns of Fall City served in the Balloon Corps during his time in Europe.

VOLUNTEER THANKS

In 2007, Lee and Marlene Young kindly shared the famous 1906 Fall City skyline postcard, one of our iconic early images.

Terri Reilly took on the challenge of making a line drawing of the Fall City skyline, which we have used as a header for our NL pages and in other designs. (Watch for it soon in a new setting!)

Terri also did a wonderful drawing of the Fall City Totem Pole, which appeared in the two historic signs in the Totem Garden.

Leigh Bromley and Denise Brennen, agile navigators of the internet, have helped find a wide variety of background information on people and topics of interest.

Laurie Needham each year takes on the task of adding the previous year's newsletter data to the Fall City Newsletter Index.

Tracy Keene is a multi-talented boon to operations with her Excel expertise, patience with transcription of newspaper articles, website data tracking, and research reports.

Scott Massey continues to patiently deal with the many changes and updates to our Composite List, used for Email Updates, Membership records, and our annual fund-raising mailing.

Rick Divers wrote the January NL article on his memories of Kachulmist (Fall City Ice Cream Parlor, 1970s) and has worked with the Board on a variety of tasks.
