Fall City Historic Walking Tour on Savor Snoqualmie Valley site

Many thanks to the folks at Savor Snoqualmie Valley for working with us to incorporate our historic signs materials into a Walking Tour on their website...with nineteen sites on the itinerary! Company in town? Take 'em on a tour!

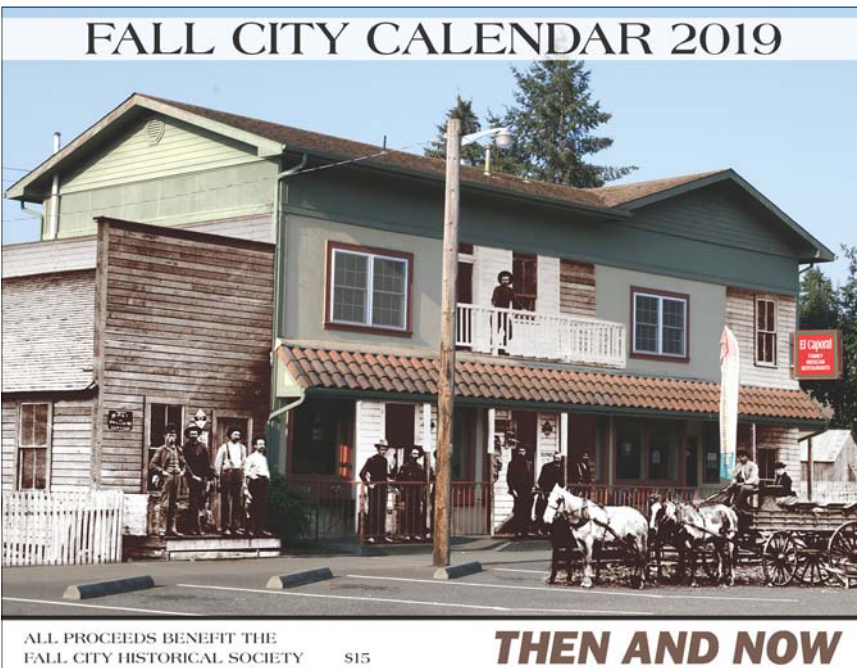

Check it out at <http://savornoqualmievalley.org/itinerary/fall-city-historic-walking-tour/> and explore the rest of their interesting website as well. They are doing a great job!

Special Volunteer Thanks to Tracy Keene Tracy generously invested many hours in the office during the first part of this year, writing procedures for recurring office tasks and setting up Excel tables for several projects. She continues to work from home on a number of tasks, but is greatly missed in the office!

Like to organize? Comfortable with computer?

We would love to find one or more folks who would be willing to spend a couple of hours a week helping with all those small necessities that need to get done, and learning about cataloging collections items as well!

Email us at historylives@fallcityhistorical.org and come in to visit!

THEN AND NOW will be the theme for the Fall City Calendar 2019, coming out in October. Fall City graphic designer extraordinaire, David Gershman came up with the jazzy cover design shown at left...our own "Hotel Corner" hybrid between the current business and the first building on the site built by David 'Doc' Taylor in 1888. Dave has the wonderful combination of unusual and inventive ideas and the skills to pull them off! We are fortunate to have his help in making the calendar a pleasure each year.

Look for it at Farmhouse Market, and the Holiday Market in December.

And this year we will reprint Jack Kelley's book.
